

Concrete Funeral - Ultimatum Judicium (2019) - Album Lyrics

2. Speak of The Devil

God is just a figment of your twisted mind
Extorting your own people while the stupid lead the blind
Go ahead lean upon your crooked crutch
Get off your fucking high horse cuz you're out of touch

Hiding dirty secrets from your own
They can only see what you will show
Hide behind a sick facade of light
Inside your souls are truly black as night

Innocence has been a target of your scheme
Ignorance has bred it through the years it seems Living life that's governed by a fairy tale
Lies flow like blood from the crucifixion nail

A saviour hung to dry out for your sins
A line of bullshit passed down kin to kin
It's started much too long ago to stop
With fear of death their numbers never drop

A foundation of filth
That grows even still
Within your blackened cave

Prey on the weak
Have no evil to speak
With that your soul is saved

A "magical" farce
That was fucked from the start
And then became abundant

Look past your nose
No lord ever chose
For you to pass his judgement

Hang your shroud of shame
On those you cannot name
Fuck you
Fetus destinies
Stay with their families
Fuck off

If there's a hell you'll surely be the one to burn
Cremated down to ash, with piss I fill the urn
Insane blind faith, black cloud that chokes and fills the air
Suffocating freedoms from the life we're spared

The tables turn quick and come crashing down
God sits high, looks upon you with a frown
Just the place you need to be, Satan with a grin
Demons shoot hot lava loads, burning off your chin.

3. Drown

Creation by Smith, rewriting the rules
Empowering elite, oppression of fools
No more questions, do what is said
Ending in paradise or prison for the dead

Mountains dissected, paid by the poor
Sectioned and stacked erecting your fort.
Saving the souls with no need or want.
The sane would agree, you should drown in your font.

Thinking is denial of faith
Delusion, word from a wraith
Missions to prove all your worth
Securing a place, when you leave this earth.

It's Salvation by donation
A Shameful congregation
Repent or segregation
Punishment, Damnation

Brainwashed and sick, your "morals" a joke
Stocking supplies on which you can choke.
Shatter your rules whenever you want.
Nobody needs you, drown in your font.

4. Holo-Comb

Slaughter, an impending fate for the hive
Quickly deprived of their lives
By jaws that slice like knives

Ambushed by a foe too large, too strong
And now before too long
We'll sing deaths sickly song

ATTACK

They started this but we're gonna finish it
Daunted by size, we don't give a shit
Wait for the sign right place, right time
Burnt to a crisp regretting their crime
They underestimate the power of the swarm
Aggression and power no match for our scorn
Falling thoughtless to our trap
Lose the war, crawl through that gap

Hundreds flock to one
Invasion has been outdone
Pressure and heat immense
Escapeless, our offence too dense

Pride brought you to a painful death
Roasted to your final breath
Your carcass decorates our nest

Pheromone, the stench is gone like you
Rid the vile magnet brew
Bit more than you could chew

Outside the hive a hopeless fight
Once inside your final plight
Numbers dwindled, devastated
Needless murder elevated
Malicious, unprovoked attack
Now huge mounds of bodies stacked
Our secret weapon then was known
You perished to the Holo-comb

Brought to your death by the comb!

5. Code Adam

Bred into madness, values torn to shreds
Crippled Christ ideals, digging for the dead.
Cruelty , pain, suffering, reality destroyed.
Non existent sanity, creating beast from boy.

Merciless, victims fate unknown.
Sodomy, flesh stripped from bone.

Love, twisted, torn, depraved.
Lust, betrayal dug the grave.

Spiral to the depths
The limits are no more
Adam's dead, his severed head
His pinnacle of gore.

Palmed by the Hand of Death
Comfort in Satan's breath
Sacrificial offerings cry
Confessions of guilt denied

Arson
Sadist
Cannibal
Blameless

Code
Code Adam
Code Adam
Code

6. Toxic Fuck

She came to you infected
Blind lust for her reflected
Bio-poison in your veins
Mass destruction taking names

Quarantined from this world
A plague without a cure
Wipe us out in the blink of an eye
With your power perverted corporate lies

From our eyes we will bleed
Flesh will rot from the bones
Our guts will melt, a liquid mess
Toxic fuck, the world abscessed

Live and let live out the goddamn door
Seal our fates you hungry whore
Take what you want, destroys us more
As mankind festers to its core

7. Mattress Stains

Leave the fireworks for those who'll cast their spark no more
Twinkle twinkle, little whore close your legs they're not a door.

Manipulate disgrace your own name
Caught in lies in a world of shame
Die with scandal, scattered remains

Cover up behind closed doors.
The dirt I stand on is worth more.
No integrity or clue what's in store
Sell yourself short, nothing less nothing more.

Abandoned little girl, lonely as can be.
Never truly satisfied with anything she sees
A daddy's job undone, the eyes of a child
Selfish disrespect
Abandonment of reconcile

Bringer of pleasure
Bringer of pain
Your truth and your lies are one and the same

Slither your way through life as you will Nothing will change, next cock is your thrill

Slurp up that jizz
It's your favourite snack
No need to save
There's more on your back

You poisoned my life
And that is your way
Im left trying to scrub out
These mattress stains.

Once a vision, now a prison for a million loads to rot
Take a moment to envision all the dicks that filled your slot
Shame should build, still not instilled
I'd love to rid you from my thought
But you stay, the mattress stains a sick as fuck forget me not

8. Carnival of Contradictions

Welcome to the 3 ring circus that we all call life
Constant contradictions
Clowns perpetuating strife
Take one look around and see
This carnival is here to stay
Unless we look upon ourselves
Turn the judgement our own way

Point the finger, pass the buck
Its never your fault, A stroke of luck
Tell a lie, bend the truth
Parade this way, it's nothing new

Everybody's guilty of the acts they claim to hate
Turn a cheek with a blind eye
A sickening fucking state

Dragging of the waters for excuse to not commit.
Talk big game, then sit back, collect the benefit

9. Stabbed To Death

Night closes in
Stalking prey alone
Murder just for fun
Steel, flesh and bone

The thirst for sinless blood
And hunger take control
Im out to take your life tonight
Leave you stiff and cold

Anyone, Anywhere
Lacerated layer by layer
Longing for your final breath
I'll serve it to you, Stabbed to Death

Vicious thrusting blade
Digging for your soul
Soaked in Catholic blood
Making me feel whole

Chunks of skin
Clinging to my knife
Lick it off, strike again
Pleasure ending life

Final moment nears
Praying for the end
It's you and me, can't you see?
God is not your friend

Sternum snapping loud
Steel pierces heart
Ever nearing what I crave
To rip your fucking chest apart

You've been
Stabbed
Stabbed
Stabbed
Stabbed
Stabbed
Stabbed
Stabbed
Stabbed to Death
