

Lyrics:

Overdrive

Speeding down the highway
Going over 95
In a two ton steel death trap machine
I know I'm gonna die

An illusion of safety
You think you'll be just fine
That's what all the others thought
I know I've not more time

Take me off of this damn ride
I can see it now my body floating towards the sky
No control of my own life
I can see it now my life it flashes 'fore my eyes

Palms are sweaty, heart is racing
You don't think I'm trying?
To get my mind off thoughts of dying
On this asphalt line

Anticipation, endless waiting
Get me there in time
But fears of lying dead and flying
Out my windshield rise

Take me off of this damn ride
I can see it now my body floating towards the sky
No control of my own life
I can see it now my life it flashes 'fore my eyes

Watch the needle fly
Oh, it feels so right to floor it tonight
Grip it real tight, my, my, my Shift to overdrive, ow! Uh!

Take me off of this damn ride
I can see it now my body floating towards the sky
No control of my own life
I can see it now my life it flashes 'fore my eyes
Floating towards the sky
Know I'm gonna die

Uh! Yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah! Woah!

Locomotive

So listen here, I'm gonna make this very clear
I'm not some punk, this time I'll make you count your tears

When you're running away it's started, hey it's started, hey it's time to go
'Cause I'm feelin' betrayed, departed, hey it's started, hey it's time to...

Don't look back

It's not the end
Who can tell?

It's got me runnin', got me gunnin'

Just like the way you move your mouth, this tragedy is goin' south
Don't lie, you know what it's about, you beat that bush, I'll make you pout
Keep pushin' me, I'll have to count, to speak the truth's the straightest route
Strike three, your luck is over pal, you swung and missed and now you're out

I'm seein' red, these hands are clenched, veins poppin', bro I'm ready to go Ain't nothin' gonna stop this animal!

O to ninety in one moment's grace
Back to start and it's another day
Enraged, my fire only grows

When you're running away it's started, hey it's started, hey it's time to go
'Cause I'm feelin' betrayed, departed, hey it's started, hey it's time to...

Don't look back
It's not the end
Who can tell?

It's got me runnin', got me gunnin'

Just like the way you move your mouth, this tragedy is goin' south
Don't lie, you know what it's about, you beat that bush, I'll make you pout
Keep pushin' me, I'll have to count, to speak the truth's the straightest route
Strike three, your luck is over pal, you swung and missed and now you're out

What have I done? You'll never stop me!
I'm fucked... So trigger happy!
This anger... You can't control me!
Like momentum... Sweet ecstasy!

When you're running away it's started, hey it's started, hey it's time to go
'Cause I'm feelin' betrayed, departed, hey it's started, hey it's time to...

Don't look back
It's not the end
Who can tell?

It's got me runnin', got me gunnin', got me runnin'

Just like the way you move your mouth, this tragedy is goin' south
Don't lie, you know what it's about, you beat that bush, I'll make you pout
Keep pushin' me, I'll have to count, to speak the truth's the straightest route
Strike three, your luck is over pal, you swung and missed and now you're, and now you're
And now you're out!

Final Hour

This side of me is growing stronger
They will not last for much longer
The Earth it trembles from my power
At last this world will be our's

Will be our's
Feel my power
This final hour

All I can see I will conquer
You challenge me? I won't falter
All those who fall before us cower
My golden empire will tower

We will tower
They will cower
This final hour

My vision of domination
I'll rule them all
Obliteration, annihilation
Oh, how the mighty fall
My tales of greatness told for generations
Captured in annals
Statues depicted, monuments erected
My name they'll call out

They will bow
Now it's our's
This final hour!

We Are The Ones

I've been searchin'
For a little thing called truth
And ever since then
Everything that I once knew
Has been challenged
From my narrow point of view
And times are changin'
And there's nothin' I can do
But I'll try

We are the ones
Who seek what is in our hearts
We are the ones
Who won't run from what we are
We are the ones
Who race towards the midnight stars
We are the ones
Who take what is theirs and what is ours

Gone are the days
When I dreamed so easily
All our lives
Always searching endlessly

Now I deny
What the world demands of me
And here I stand
Rooted in my own beliefs
And we'll fly

We are the ones
Who seek what is in our hearts
We are the ones
Who won't run from what we are
We are the ones
Who race towards the midnight stars
We are the ones
Who take what is theirs and what is ours

Open your eyes and see what the world can be

We are the ones
Who seek what is in our hearts
We are the ones
Who won't run from what we are
We are the ones
Who race towards the midnight stars
We are the ones
Who take what is theirs and what is ours

Get Me Out of Here

Yeah-e-yeah-e-yeah!

Here I am, I find myself stuck alone right here with you
It's times like these that make me think, leave me left without a clue
Why can't I defy myself? Leave me battered, black and blue
Yet here I am, back where I began, sing along to the same old tune

It's got me feelin' alright

Gotta get me out of here
I can feel it gettin' hot in here
Take me to the stratosphere, anywhere but here
Gotta get me out of here

Just fight the fear

Man I feel drawn to the sin tonight
Recollect myself
Tell me I'm wrong when I know it's right
Like I'm someone else
Guess it's time to fight the fright?
Find whatever helps
I see the time, gotta catch my ride, but it's taking me to hell

I think I'm feelin' alright?

Gotta get me out of here
I can feel it gettin' hot in here
Take me to the stratosphere, anywhere but here
Gotta get me out of here

Time to disappear

You've taken my freedom and sanity

You've shattered my sense of immortality
My heart it turns to stone when you look my way
At last I've made peace with my reaper's face, yeah!

Gotta get me out of here
I can feel it gettin' hot in here
Take me to the stratosphere, anywhere but here
Gotta get me out of here

Just fight the fear
Gotta fight the fear

Awe, yeah!

Ooh!
