

Days Without Incident Lyrics

No Words:

Intro:

Like smoke in your fingers / the pain ever lingers
They left without warning / no words for their parting

Verse:

I'm there in the crowd / I'm weeping out loud
And thinking of what I will make for dinner.
I'm here to be seen / I hope I'm not mean
When I say I'd rather be home.
They paid me for mourning / I'm jewels for adorning the pews for your funeral rites.

So don't ask me how I know the family

Pre-Chorus:

You all need me in the end

Chorus:

I don't mean no disrespect. I'm sorry for your loss, but it don't mean a thing to me.
(bury me just like the rest)
I don't want to pay respect. I did not know the man, but I'm paid for the tears you see.
(bury me just like the rest)

(your tears, they mean nothing to me, bury me just like the rest)

Pre-Chorus:

You all need me in the end

Chorus:

I don't mean no disrespect. I'm sorry for your loss, but it don't mean a thing to me.

(bury me just like the rest)

I don't want to pay respect. I did not know the man, but I'm paid for the tears you see.

(bury me just like the rest)

Bridge:

I believed in something at first. Like this was something beautiful, but it's an intermission. An intermission from something infinitely darker and more beautiful.

Outro:

Like smoke in my fingers / the pain ever lingers You left without warning / no words for your parting x2

Pick Your Poison:

Verse:

Every day I wake up with my head spinning
Palms grip the porcelain and I hate the image
Drag back another one My stomach's twisting
But I find safety in the repetition.

I've been trying out new therapy where I scream till my ears bleed
Got my drugs and magazines. (still don't feel free)
Drag back another one feel you running through my veins
Gave up on clarity I'm wrecked but not insane.

Chorus:

They've been playing with me like you wouldn't believe
I am the receiver of all their deceit
They've been messing around like you wouldn't believe
Got my head in the clouds and I reek of defeat

Verse:

I can't remember what was done or what was said
My whole world's painted out with the hollows of my head.
Dig up the flower bed sun beating on my back

I can't feel its warmth no more it's ferocious in the act --

Chorus:

Bridge:

Cuz when I head home I'm a headcase, I know.

I'm never truly alone. It's just me, myself, and my self esteem.

Verse:

So I claws until my fingers bled At the roots beneath my feet
And I tugged them up all blood and mud (Never felt so clean)
Tore the bricks down from the wall And baked inside the light
Screaming out rebirth, rebirth My poisons tossed aside

Chorus: x2

(no more headaches, no more lungs caving in)

(I can feel the sun)

They've been messing around like you wouldn't believe

Got my head in the clouds and I reek of defeat

(no more headaches, no more lungs caving in)

Misfits:

Intro:

I saw her a few times here and there

In shallow waters and narrow hallways

Stupid trips, boring parties.

She didn't seem to fit,

Neither did I, but that's alright.

Verse:

I didn't even know her name and that's all she left behind.

A question that was never asked I never asked why

I didn't even know her name before she signed her suicide note

Chorus:

I never thought that she'd be the first one to go,
Waiting there in the darkness below.
Silence is all I hear from the people 'round
Please, oh please just leave me where I'm found!

(She was the first of many)

Bridge:

Well she's the first of many and it won't stop there.
Don't be the last of any to really care?

Chorus:

I never thought that she'd be the first one to go,
Waiting there in the darkness below.
Silence is all I hear from the people 'round
Please, oh please just leave me where I'm found!

5 Centimeters Per Second:

My universe will never be the same x2

What's happening to me?
This burning in my chest will not cease
Like ice, I tried to conquer the ocean
Yet you conquered my heart

I am here and I am afraid
Yet not even the rain, could wash this all away
I want to bathe in your life stream
Cleanse myself in your existence

Let your ivory tears rain on me

And the waves break on the memory
Of you and I in harmony
Your eyes used to flicker at the sight of stars

My universe will never be the same x3

So come back to me beautiful, always
I cannot wait for the wind to change
To let you fade to me again
Cannot wait to see you again

For I feel so hollow
With all these miles between
For I feel so alone
When you're not beside me
So let the sands of time
Dance within my hands
It slips away so slowly
Each second is unholy.

The stars echo your name
Crystals in the night, shattered by morning
But you are everlasting, endless night
A beautiful tragedy

Faux News

Verse:

You clap but you don't even know why
Celebration ain't even justified
Your flags take on many shapes and sizes
But they can't hide the fear that's in between your eyes

Chorus:

"Your votes are bought off the shelves of the American dream store, and you fight a losing battle against yourselves

Corporations! / Salutations! Resource! / Misinformation!

It's all happening while you brush your teeth in the suburbs of your denial.

Verse:

Abuse is the motivation you need.

A little pain, here and there, can go a long way

Keep me numb to the fractures in their skin.

Ignorance is my right as an American.

Bridge:

But deep down I know that it's all wrong

But what can I do? I'm just one person.

I'd rather live blind and on my knees

Than get shot trying to get on my feet

Chorus:

Your votes are bought off the shelves of the American dream store, and you fight a losing battle against yourselves Corporations! / Salutations! Resource! / Misinformation! It's all happening while you brush your teeth in the suburbs of your denial.

Sheltered:

I was the rain in your lungs

And it's mind over matter

You're drowning alone

Run running out of breath

For the last words you said

In the last song you sung

I was the rain in your veins

Rushing in like a river

Breaking your skin

(Empty of oxygen)

Pre Chorus:

And now you're breathless, alone in your bed.

As images flash through your head.

Chorus:

I said I'm giving it up

I'm giving it in

If I'm holding you up

Then say something about it to me

Verse:

You were once a child

Born of blue

Dressed in roses

A fantastic display

My princess of grey

An illusion of substance

You've got your blankets wrapped tight

Sheltered all through the night

From the fiends in the mirror

(Hide away from fear)

I'll be here waiting (Dressed for you) Shamelessly sedated (All for use) You're your own damn monster

(No excuse) Night Terror (I'd rather feel a burning on my skin And an aching in my bones Than feel hollow and feel sheltered Then feel nothing here at all.)

Turnpike:

Verse:

I am blind and walking on a stony path,
With soundless voices
That drag me along.

Senseless premonitions incite fear
Of the invisible road,
Laid by those I don't know

Ahead all I can see is the coastline,
And behind is darkness.
Where do I go?

(Chorus)
Screaming under water, where no one can hear,
Will nobody help me?
I'm scared to death but don't know what to fear

(Stuck here at the crossroads)
stuck here on my own

(Stuck here at the crossroads)

stuck here on my own

Verse:
Hear the screaming whispers. They shout in my ear.
They tell me to walk,
And to walk all alone.

My eyes are open, but they can't see.
I've been here so long,
Oh dear God help me.

This asphyxiation fills my heavy head
But I can't give in to this
Calling darkness.

(Chorus)

Screaming under water, where no one can hear,
Will nobody help me?
I'm scared to death but don't know what to fear

(Stuck here at the crossroads)

Stuck here on my own

(Stuck here at the crossroads)

Stuck here on my own, yeah.

All For Nothing:

(You won't!)

Verse:

You know that I am telling the truth,
But it's a shame you can't see.

Pre-Chorus

They're lying, oh, they're lying, oh they're
Lying to you when you,
Think you're friendless, think your useless, think that
No one wants you to be there

Chorus:

I see the light drain from your eyes
When the devils take you.
Oh no, you don't deserve it.
What if it's all for nothing?

Verse:

I tried to say what I should say,
But the words wouldn't come out.

Pre-Chorus

They're lying, oh, they're lying, oh they're
Lying to you when you,
Think you're friendless, think your useless, think that
No one wants you to be there.

Chorus:

You say this comes as no surprise,
That your mind is racing.
Oh no, you don't deserve it.
What if it's all for nothing?

Bridge:

(I don't want to hear it)
(I do not deserve this)
(I can't feel anything)
(It's all for naught!)

Chorus:

What if it's all for nothing
What if we're all meant to lose.
Oh no, you don't deserve it.
What if it's all for nothing?

Futures and Goodbyes:

How wide the sky appears, o'er this growing land.
How the green still lingers along the concrete sand.

I find it hard to remember the sky while I'm in bed
And hear the haggard whispers of poems left unsaid.

Still I wander.
Still I wonder,
Where shall it take me?
The unknown.

It's not that they're not written, or spoken in bitter tones.
They're etched in corners hidden, they're underneath our bones

Futures and goodbyes
Futures and goodbyes

Futures and goodbyes they are waiting
Did you forget to see me before you go?

Futures and goodbyes they are waiting
I know that I won't be missed when I must go

Futures and goodbyes they are waiting
For you to get up and take this life in your hands.

Futures and goodbyes they are waiting
Did you forget to see me before you go?

Before you go
Before you go

A Prison Just for Us:

Intro:
You'll see I'll be
Home again. Safe Again.

You'll see I'll be-

Verse:
The girl you fell for. Your manic dream whore.
The secret fantasy you had locked away.
So still you wait there, awash in night air,
Still waiting for the green light to return.
I don't deserve this, the secret lover's kiss,

The wonderment of a life you thought could stay.
But I am not her, oh, she was younger,
She was the promise of a life you'd yet to live.

(I'm just one breath away from falling apart
I'm just one breath away)

Chorus:

You built a prison just for us
And you're locking me away.
The sins of the mould you cast
Aren't mine to hold,

Yet here I'm suffering.
I'm suffering, I'm suffering
Here with you, here with you
I'm suffering, I'm suffering
Here with you.

Bridge:

(Left for dead)

I am the girl you left behind, and then left for dead.
On the farther shore I waited for you to return,
But I got sick of waiting. My heart was closed for good.
It took me this long to get over the distance between us.

Chorus:

You built a prison just for us
And you're locking me away.
The sins of the mould you cast
Aren't mine to hold,

Yet here I'm suffering.
I'm suffering, I'm suffering
Here with you, here with you

I'm suffering, I'm suffering
Here with you.
