

Mind's Mirrors Meshing Together:

The realm of my assurance dissolves

The singular plane I walk on splits, inhabiting the infinite layers

Mind's Mirrors Meshing Together To Create An

Unseen Realm Of Chaos Enveloping

My Entire Being Compromised With The Night... Fear... (in a sea of potential... fear...)

Of Overloading My Senses (systems) With The Night

The Forces Under My Value Structures Turn Into A World Of Conscious Demise... Infection...
(prove them to be those of a fool...)

I Can't See God...

North Star

First verse:

Mixed between honesty and wanting to belong
I've drowned myself in my reward
This came and went so fast and though I knew it would...
I knew it would, I knew it would, I knew it would. Go!

Pre-chorus:

Now I don't know where I am
I, I need to find an aim
You have to aim toward something in this world like it's the north star
But the north's a luxury. The south is a good start.

Chorus:

Mixed between honesty and wanting to belong
I cannot run now, I can no more prolong
Descending under, in shadow must I lie?
Please say your prayers for me, I very well may die

Second Verse:

There is a fire that's talked about so much
So powerful a force it rivals the sun
This came and went so fast and though I knew it would
I've drowned myself in the choice of my destruction

Pre-chorus:

Second Chorus:

It's no surprise that I am left here all alone
Feelings unbridled ran then burned out of control
Up through the mountains, gone through the valleys low
There's no escape for me to satisfy my soul

The battering waves of agony tear my heart open wide
Tell me your reasoning, you buried me alive
Left me with just a glimpse of who you truly are
Time will tell if all heals of this scar

End:

Now

I know, I will come

I'm coming for you

I will come

I'm coming for you

Prison

First verse:

We often talk along the surface, but do we ever find what's beneath?

What would it be like, a life that's full of meaning? Well it's 1pm and I can't think.

But what does that mean for my existence? What does that mean for the problems that I face?

It's getting harder to ride out the storm when every roll of thunder shakes my faith...

Chorus:

Every little thing brings me down

Every little thing takes me out

Why can't I make things better? Time's moving on inside my home

A prison that I own

Second verse:

Well now I've been trapped inside this room

As the walls begin to peel

The wounds fester full of zeal

So what does that mean for my existence? What does that mean for the problems that I face?

It's getting harder to ride out the storm when every roll of thunder...

Chorus:

Chorus:

-End -

Resent

First verse:

Resentment and agony, life is not justified

For meaning is absent in wake of my despise

The feeling of weakness in all I have to give surrounding the failure of my entire self

Pre-Chorus:

Facilitation of the death and resurrection going all through time in my own life

As time goes by the symptoms remaining, all my life is all for the taking

Am I imagining this?

Chorus:

It's getting harder to see when I'm not rewarded (scream: for playing the game)

Like a worm in the mud of existence, I spend my life groveling (scream: for a reason to be)

Second verse:

Now years have compiled of wondering why

Evolving, my evil, and hatred of this world

Familiar, the faces, a failing, writhing mass

So foolish, so frail, the bounds of existence

Pre-Chorus:

Facilitation of the death and resurrection going all through time in my own life

As time goes by the symptoms increasing, all I am is all for the taking

Am I imagining this?

Chorus:

Middle:

Entering the realms of interwoven fantasy

Not far from reality, though these realms may seem

Spiders in my thoughts and in my actions overwhelming

Sands of time have shown that the web is unraveling...

I come undone

Transition:

It's getting harder to see when I'm not rewarded

Chorus:

-End-

Road of Resistance

Fire across the eastern sky

Ending signal of the times

Fear of the darkened chaos

Just hold on the dawn is near

End of what we all hold dear

Oceans collide through silent eyes

Look now with honor

The reaper is at hand

For the price of freedom we now stand

Now is the time, it's the time

It's our moment right now

It's the time, it's the time for sacrifice

Time, it's the time

For the hope of a brighter silent day

Future of all in our hands

Chorus:

Go for resistance, resistance

Oh woah oh oh oh, going forward to heartache

Through the storm and endless winds and lies of the night

Just know that there could be a way forever (forever) forever (forever)

Oh woah oh oh oh, take a breath of a lifetime

Destiny over the sands of time

It's the hour, the call of our resistance

(x4 I think)

Woah oh oh oh

Woah oh oh oh

Woah oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

Future of life

Through works of our time

So never forget what has made you alive

Hung round my neck, the world's burdens I bear

The timeless endeavor of life... Ah!

Resistance

Resistance

Stand up and shout (scream)

Shouting forever (scream)

Through the storms and endless winds and lies of the night

The hardest path you're never alone

Forever (forever) forever (forever)

Oh woah oh oh oh

Going forward to heartache

Suffering and never-ending pain

Until I fall

Catastrophe of the Tragic Melancholies

First verse:

Given time (time alone) to think and brood on all the times I've been a fool
To squander opportunity, ignoring all that I could be My myth has been acted out. Unconscious play of fear and doubt. A tragedy is where I've live, Nothing in life, no more to give

I know myself and I am not the model of a perfect kind
I am an evil being split with violent deeds and good intent
I fathom all that I could do and suffer time gone through and through The tragedy of all my life is what I keep close tonight
As the sun drifts further from my eyes, so colder grows my despise for God and all his Malcontent, a lust for flesh around my neck

Chorus 1:

My life has been under the sun, bent to its rules of time. Have I only done what matters not?
What meaning is there to find? As I suffer still preparing to face the utter void, I truly see the Grandeur of creation under the sun.

Second verse:

I pity the eclipse of moths who call themselves my friends
The fools know not of my intent, ungracious force, malevolent
Like a wolf feeding on injured calves, I've roamed the fields, cut down at last
By God and all his malcontent, a lust for flesh around my neck

Chorus 2:

Give in to me, each day defined
A murdered son, no heart of mine
Cut him down by your own hand
A sign of these treacherous lands

End:

No need for fear, no need to find
As I near the end, this heart of mine
Cut it down, right now, at last
I cease to be. These days to pass

The Land I Will Show You

First verse:

Get out of your home, go forth into the world
Suffering's eternal, but the balance is a hope
In time you'll make yourself into a man of proper worth
But for now, contend with the forces of earth...
Into the places I've never been before
The land of my fathers holds me no more
I seek a new calling
One to put me on the, on the proper path...

Second verse:

The story of a dark and calloused man
Adheres to the truth in the times of these lands
Introducing the power of a covenant into the structure of reality at hand

Woah... Woah... Woah... Oh!

Woah... Woah... Woah... Oh!

Soft part:

Tonight we find the freedom in our lives to hold through the power of time.
Tonight we strive. The strength and the wisdom to hold through; the will to survive
Oh...
Tonight we find the freedom in our lives to hold through the power of time
Tonight we strive. The strength and the wisdom to hold through the will to survive
Oh!

Tonight we find!

Breakdown:

I'm coming down, roaming around

I've walked the earth and worn my crown, but now, when sun is down I bury my master

Walk. Walking away, I live to fight another day and now, when the sun is down I carry my time to rise

-End-

Happy Times

First Verse:

Do you remember when you were a child?
Feelings of grandeur and forces so wild
Imagination to rival the earth
Now disenchanted, in need of rebirth, yeah

Enclosure of love
Archaic structure we all emerge from

To see your innocence decline throughout life
Or end abruptly in a motion of crime
To see the world now through all that you find
A cynical decree of the mind

And now you fall to the world of humanity

- No chorus -

2nd Verse:

The walled city crumbles before
The unimaginable forces abhorred
Despair, your memories of memories
Fade into the world you experience

And now you fall to the world of humanity

3rd Verse (End):

Emerge from your fear
To take on the life of now in this sphere
To rejoin an elemental covenant
To stand against the tragedy of being
