

Juliet Ruin - Dark Water (single) (2020)

Silver and cold shadows that force curses ten fold back to the source.
Ravens always call the wolves.
Cycles of fear. Skies disappear.
A touch of a sound frozen to bone.
Scry into eyes far and forlorn.
Pools of dreadful emptiness.

Chorus

Dead of night, cycles of fear.
Timeless skies all disappear.
Why stay, why rot here?
Floating in the black in this dark water.
Lost ashamed and doomed to repeat.

A lone poltergeist the undertow takes Everything flows and everything breaks
The river winds its way to truth

Chorus

Chorus x 2

Cosmic Vertigo

Banish me like burned down planets

Write my fate with sparkling lies

I am the universe you're just one sky

Vastness above and so below us

Strength forged in fear

We rise beyond

This is a test

The highest priestess

I save my life I lift me up

Just enjoy it while it lasts

Cling not to the broken past

Suffocate like late December

Glittering with hopeful dreams

Memories hang like hooks in skin that bleeds

Vastness above and so below us

Strength forged in fear

We rise beyond

This is a test

The highest priestess

I save my life I lift me up

Just enjoy it while it lasts

Cling not to the broken past

We are so infinitesimal

Oh let's get Cosmic Vertigo

Panic's not intuition

I trust myself

When the clocks all face the ground

Turn away superstition

Know thyself

In stillness you are found

Save myself

Outside the night is screaming I come alive unexpectedly bright, unexpectedly

Just enjoy it while it lasts

Cling not to the broken past

We are so infinitesimal

Oh let's get cosmic vertigo

Fake Stigmata

The thread connecting what was and isn't no longer shines
Spin brand new webs with better chemicals, engage better minds

If nothing else you have audacity
The rotting starts in the roots

Five holy scars, the chosen ones
The living lies, fake stigmata

Guilt is making such strange faces in the corners of smiles
Was set apart to be the villain just like everyone else
True villains just can't see themselves

If nothing else you have audacity
The rotting starts in the roots

Five holy scars, the chosen ones
The living lies, fake stigmata

Guilt is making such strange faces in the corners of smiles
Was set apart to be the villain just like everyone else
The thread connecting what was and isn't no longer shines
I spin brand new webs and I engage better minds

Five holy scars, the chosen ones
The living lies, fake stigmata

Might

Behold beyond the scope

Veils fell and we owned the world

Damned from the start but resilience is all that we know.

Hope decays into soil, nurtured the seeds that we've sown.

Align. Fight. The luck of a bastard; all of my might.

Align. Fight. The luck of a bastard; all of my might.

Tie my veins to the stars

Remedy faraway scars

Courage like armour I'll don it to fight all your Gods.

Return a hermit, a fool waiting up for the dawn.

Align. Fight. The luck of a bastard; all of my might.

Align. Fight. The luck of a bastard; all of my might.

Perspectives become lost desperation.

Ashes from the flames.

Remade over again.

Align. Fight. The luck of a bastard; all of my might

Align. Fight. The luck of a bastard; all of my might.

Align. Fight. There is only do bitch, there's no fucking try

Align. Fight. The luck of a bastard; all of my might.
