

LYRICS

AEON FLUX

Bend and break before me as I stare into your eyes
All the things we share together are slipping through your lies
Sharpen this cold disgusting knife
Bleeding out your name, you've drained me from my life
Is there no solution?
Is there no refrain?
The methods of your living
Are soon to die with your name
You are living like a knife
All you do is stab
Stealing beloved trust
With the weapon in your hand
Spreading the virus through your hands
Breathing your plague upon our lands
You are living like the knife

UNDER THE FIRE

Listen to the sounds of all humans cry
Left for dead beaten tortured and blinded now
We feel defeated weak-minded
Welcome to the hate, devouring our blistered World
Overcoming the place of mind
In every life we find
Pain defeating love
Pain defeating love
Hate...this is the enemy
Hate...this is catastrophe
Hate...this is the ENEMY
So comes the breathing ground
Silence eclipses all around
So far from me you are Distant by steps of fire
Violent memories, We suffer from our history
Just more Violent memories if we don't change our history
Listen to the cries of innocence
Welcomed by the hate who lives in fear
Find a place in your mind where we can come back home
There is no place to hide, you have to come back strong
PAIN, LOVE

KINGSLAYER

Focus your rage into flawless energy creating the pathway to the Universe enslaved with the battles of those free from their cage

Life within this world will free you from
your sin
Destructing these temples taste the tainted blood
Free from sin within your blinded mind
I'm free to be
The Entity

KINGSLAYER × 2

Life within this world will free you from
your sin
Destructing these temples taste the tainted blood
Free from sin within your blinded mind
I'm free to be
The Entity

EMPTY

Hear these demons when they're calling

Breathing in the smell of depression rains on my effort to comfort and ease your pain

What is the darkness like?

Does it feel the same?

as if everyone knows your name?

FEEL FEAR FOREVER

These souls are coming to destroy the world, deceiving nothing

These souls are coming to destroy her world, deceiving feelings

I become the awakened living with the...

I become the awakened living with the dead

There's no soul...these souls

are Empty

just like you and me

NECRONOMICON

These lessons in our fairy tales are opening up our dreams to the dark beliefs that not one of us can ever perceive

Chtuhulu will you live again?
from the deepest parts of the ocean you ascend

Imagine a world created by spells cosmic creatures and the ruler of 17 hells

Chtuhulu will you live again?
from the deepest parts of the ocean you ascend

You can't unsee the pain ×2

LOST, INSANE
THIS EVIL HAS NO NAME

LOST.....

SCATTERED STORM

When you were bleeding your heart away
Pushing all away.
When you were feeling all this gray
You washed it all away

Stay with me..
