INNOCENCE

LYRICS

Hey it's a new day arising deconstruction of all we opposed the revolution is coming are you ready for war

Show me something beautiful I've never known Rip his fucking heart out and take his throne
You became a friend of the enemy
Now you're just a coward and I am free

Are we all so innocent?
Theres a fire in us all.
Theres no limit to our strength
When they have our backs against the wall
Let me hear your anger
We can take this back it's time
Are we all so innocent?

You always there to control me
We will no longer stand for the lies
When the darkness is upon you Look me dead in the eyes!
