

Alchemy lyrics

Silver:

Spread disease upon this face of season's change

Streaming the light into a single form of kind
As you hear the whisper close behind

Close to the only true reason that we lie Secrets held inside the oracle's eyes Slowly the ever changing wonder that we seek

Moulding all misconceptions of me

Seal the only acrimony deepening So far into this ever changing scene

Follow me into the ceremonious deliverance

It is the taste I crave that frees my kind?
Elementary all the feelings that I've come to please

Sever this attachment that has held me on my knees

Cold the endless craving in me Silver lining will forever be Eyes that see in this weakened belief
All my will has been drained from the weak

Frozen time has showed me that only way to be the only
A fallen angel will beset my mind Edges of the weakened starry eyes that follow me
Execution of that feeling that I hate in me Simple is the only answer that will calm me now & after Falling apart into a single need

All I feel is what you hate in me See me as the evil as you bleed Blame your lover for what you can't be Mirror never lies as we both see

Now we fear the bitterness of what we've never seen

Home is now where we allow the new disease to breed

Sifting through the aftermath of what you have become

Holding on until the clarity begins to overcome

to be the only

A fallen angel will beset my mind

Cannibalize these internal lies into a grotesque image & distorted sight

Feed me the orgy of watered down glory, only to regurgitate the lies Seconds will pass but the memories last until one day when the candle burns you out

Until then we will continue to feed until our little opening dies

Alchemy:

Skip the beat and falter deeper, salt is on the open lesion

Is this the only way to cover this and make it pretty?

This the dance that you will call your own to be remembered

Racing through the only hollow incomplete surrender

Reasoning this false addiction, soon to be my modern fiction

The elevation has erased what has been left behind

Waking to the fundamentals of a game I don't remember

So far the saviour of a fallen effigy surrendered

All in the way you need this feeling, hollow is evenly breathing

Falsify this enigma killing me

Second to none this sucker reeking of all that seeps into the vein Callous ameba, parasitic enemy

Automatic elevation caught in the pain While your peeling the shame away Only one way to completely elate my soul Wicked the smile of a sensual being, indoctrinate me in the pain Follow the need to be the alchemy

Wanna be your alibi, come another suicide to bring to you to the deadlights Can it be the only, can it be the empty, can it please be the never ending Psychobiology, deep into pain, seeking the answer with a vengeance
Can it be the only, can it be the empty,
can it please be the never ending

Infinite:

Weakness, forget the other fear Sorrow is only the beginning Foretold that this would be the ending Corrode within the inner feeling

Seek me to eliminate, soon to be all of me Begin the evolution
In deep in the element of this calamity Spawning a new beginning

Now inside the freedom of man I claim to be Seeking only what you have planned to reap the day Color the unholy command, this is the one true promised land

We feed upon the will of what grows in shadows Filling that cup with whatever holds the answers
Splints of time regenerate the memories Close your eyes just so you can see

Your inhibitions grow as you learn from this sight

Keys that hold a secret that you unlock tonight

A seizing kind of feeling that holds you tight Holding now what you condemn tonight

Infinite; the eyes of angels

Seeking the devil in me

The acrimonious deliverance

Infinite; come taste this saviour

Inject your final despair

Come in to break the ceremonial

Sheepish, the others as they prey

Forgive only the ones that hail me

Sugar, the taste of the divine

Sin now is what we have in kind

Witness the downward evolution

Tasting the hollow retribution

Sickness embraces the emotion

Soon this will be the only focus Spreading disease upon the face of season's change

Hunter be the hunted, we are one in the same

Streaming light into a single form of kind
As you hear the whisper close behind

Thorn of mine has now become the pain I now crave

Take me away into the salvage I create A weakened state of mind will close the gate

Foretold of this night where I must wait

Calling the name that will always be infinite

Now with the freedom, all the feeling comes to better the need

Bow to the old & vulgar man as he holds the key

Cold & violent see the mind, the reckoning begins

Seeking the beginning of the falling of man, come follow me

Cold seizing control of what you ignore Hazy in the way that you appear to me

Solace in solitude holds me inside the cold Fear the feeling, calm the need, bleed from the soul

Seeking the feeling, fall to me, weakening decline

Synergy of elements waving goodbye

Making up my only solution Stinging the growing dissolution Caustic the resin at it coats me Stick to the reason to complete me

Black Mirror:

Call me, whatever you will say All of this is trivial & insatiable, no words will ever save you Fall to weakening decline Seconds pass & soon the cast of all this will live within a lie

Send me all way to the endgame Left in the lurch, shaking me to vilify this needing Singularity forms, all of this & then some Discharge of the soul, bring me another closure

Experiment, development, abomination Calling the name, never complete Appalling execution individual bane Hollow inside, can't even die

Singularity, venerability, taking away from me Primordial, individual, now ethereal Reiteration, duplication, artificial undead No humanity, just examining, what it is that I'll do next

My black mirror Press rewind a thousand times Black room I designed for you, come & play with me tonight I'll be inside you, breathing within your mind

Organism, animation stuck on repeat Fecal intent, no indiscretion Self contamination with a mind dissipated Never alone, always alone, left in the cold

Suddenly wake into the unknown undertow
Solar facade dichotomizing everything Pulling strings, contaminate me

Am I able? Am I evil? I am Abel? Am I evil?

Numbing the mind to an illusion Now become the enemy of all this cryptic Cannibalize me from the archetype

Taking the spark from a grain of the only you A division now, another you to grow in the dark Where is the line when infusing mortality Taking a consciousness, making a counterfeit

Duplication of the anonymity, less to color me, build to govern me, soon to cover me
Now this illusion becoming my god A new day, yet another way to live out same day that I keep on living again & again & again

Ghost:

Welcome home my dear, it's been a long & tired road that I have traveled to be here

Bereft of all that came before this, a hollow feeling

All my rage is bottled up and boiling Now with this there comes the witness, showing me the way I'm headed

Do or die

Wasted days fall into faded memories

All this evening I've watched you Teasing me, feeling golden idle in me coming out to greet you

As I slip into this trance I've bathed in rotten thoughts that always take me back to where I know

C'est la vie, from tonight you will never be alone

First born of his name, he became the animal kingdom, you become the one

Finding out the way to overcome the solitude, my head game

You are perfection as long as you are mine

C'est la vie, from tonight you'll never be, with this warm embrace far from this all Call to me, I'll be your elegy, my community is your hideaway

All the way to fall into this, holding on to all that made you realize what is to come Feeling calm inside, all the while you hide, deep inside I'm blind, I feel this pouring out my eyes

When the silence come to greet you Welcome it with knowledge that your peace will never come or let you sleep All the reasons now, you are who who are No point trying to change that

You have always known who you are

Until Dawn:

My embrace with you will color me with everything

That is your purity & empathy

(All my being contained in this feeling)

All the way to the breakthrough of a needing

The truest thing I've ever known

Oh the things I've fought alone

The scars on me forever shown

Darkest nights & bitter cold

Fate is such a funny thing, tomorrow never knows what will be coming (Brought together through an ever knowing, never thought this could be my story)

An angel fell but no one discovered this diamond so rare & beautiful

Growing into something that I never knew would be my new absoluteness (Fade into the only predetermination that I never knew was only but time) Color this anonymous, in all of us that just need to be with another who needs Now my destiny has finally found me Through darkened times all the while, you were just waiting for me

Fantasy is now reality
No more secrets, you are my new kingdom
So long waiting for this season's changing Fate has gifted me this everlasting

No one has ever known me until you my life was only Seen through eyes betrayed by reasons To see the birth of all you are can never be taken apart
And shown the absolution

Read through lines that have bled me all the while

Taking me the course of a gold mine Bury this inside, beneath the hard lines Ticking the time, awaken the truth Call me only the lonely Keep me far from where I would be You're the only reason I prevailed You are now my only

Zero Hour:

Slipping in & out of a dream I know the ending Even though I can't believe what I see

Seconds turn to minutes & days Lonely ocean on a raft, take me far away

Sickening the feeling in me Following the sun as it goes down in the sea with me Darkening is building in me Now the silence deafening & bleeding

this need within me

Polluting this awareness with the sinking feeling strangling

Focus on awakening my inner most desire

Bloated ego falter no one, I'm my own demise

Embrace the ghost you love the most while tasting the divine

Time to behold what now unfolds

See the light, dark as night, colors soon turn white (bleed to white)

Greetings now, the end is here

Celebrate the moment overtaking me

I lose control.. eulogy complete.. I drift off asleep

As it feeds the hunger in me

Feeding on the frozen heart of reckoning my former deeds

Seconds soon become the day

As time no longer reads the pages of this complex new design

Illusion starts to bends the senses Follow the trail of crumbs & dance around the miasma

Between these parallels so deep I find no calm, no trail beneath Slow descending never complete, this immortal purge Disembodied mind & mortal passing through the portal overnight

Traces fold the light as colors that race to stay awake Single thought of revelation, eyes now fragmentize
