

Solider of 34
Music: Robitsch/Walker
Lyrics: Quinn

VERSE (Call and Response)

Two of swords drawn but one path to take Aiding my comrades in the struggle for Trost
Wall Rose broken as the beast roams
No craven betrayal, my heart for the cause

PRE-CHORUS

Hell, I've been through
Anger, for humanity,
Not this behemoth before me

VERSE (Call and Response)

Stand up for the weak, and for them be strong Persistence in battle, a warrior I am Never the coward, fight for thirty four Desertion is criminal, I'm not afraid

PRE-CHORUS

Hell, I've been through
Anger, for humanity,
Not this behemoth before me

Chorus

I am a soldier
resolute
I can't find my way
Oh, without you

I was your protector
You are my red thread of fate
Try as I might, your memory aside
I can't seem to let myself die

VERSE (Call and Response)

Death is our present reality
The deafening screams of children fallen
Focus and precision, I'm in for the kill
I can't think of you now, I must go on

Pre-Chorus

Hell, I've been through
Anger, for humanity,
Not this behemoth before me

VERSE (Call and Response)

Killed in action, fallen the titan
Imminent death, as I've accepted my fate
In this life there is nothing but pain
Pain in existence and pain at my end

Chorus

I am a soldier
resolute
I can't find my way
Oh, without you

I was your protector
You are my red thread of fate
Try as I might, your memory aside
I can't seem to let myself die

Chorus

I am a soldier
resolute
I can't find my way
Oh, without you

Beauty lives within cruelty

You are my red thread of fate
Try as I might, your memory aside
I can't seem to let myself die

Gwynnbleidd
Music: Robitsch
Lyrics: Quinn

Verse

Slayer of infamy
Songs written of your glory
You never asked to be So nefarious

For you she is searching Estranged daughter calling Embrace the child in the trees

Pre-Chorus

The message is clear
As blood is in the streets

It's as the mage foretold

Fate persists even if you don't believe

All that will be must be

Chorus

Chaos reigns in her world
She follows the whispers in her dreams

Chaos reigns, as it does with us all
Your destiny awaits
The end's beginning

Verse

Solitary hunter
Your path never altered
This law is resolute
And unyielding

Resilient and awakened
And although she is afraid

You know she will never stray

Pre-Chorus

The message is clear
As blood is in the streets

It's as the mage foretold

Fate persists even if you don't believe
All that will be must be

Chorus

Chaos reigns in her world
She follows whispers in her dreams

Chaos reigns, as it does with us all
Your destiny awaits

Bridge

Entwined are you both
The law has bound
Older than your time

You have chosen
It has been vowed
The princess cries

Chorus/Outro

Oh (for roughly 4)

Chaos reigns in her world
She follows the whispers in her dreams

Chaos reigns, as it does with us all
Your destiny awaits

Chaos reigns, as it does with us all
Your destiny
Is only beginning

SEA OF APPARITIONS

Music: Walker/Robitsch

Lyrics: Quinn

Verse

Delinquent, degenerate
It's easy to cast the blame
Falling into being alone

Young warrior, spirit detective
All the people that you love,
It's you they depend upon

Pre-Chorus

Every battle fought
Every friend made
Every stone thrown into water
Ripples back again

Chorus

Arise!
Decide to live or decide to die
Endings appear
Like apparitions

Verse

Fallen for the ice maiden
Soul of kindness and empathy stronger than your facade

Unassuming hero
Moral code imperative lead with your head
And not your heart

Pre-Chorus

Every battle fought
Every friend made
Every stone thrown into water
Ripples back again

Chorus

Arise!
Decide to live or decide to die
Endings appear
Like apparitions

Power through pain, live a tortured lie
Endings appear
Like apparitions

Bridge

Always the victor
You are the cursed child

Dark champion
Dead forevermore

Solo

Pre-Chorus

Every battle fought
Every friend made
Every stone thrown into water
Ripples back again

Chorus

Arise!

Endings appear
Like apparitions

Power through pain, live a tortured lie
Endings appear
Like apparitions

The Swordsman
Music: Walker/Robitsch
Lyrics: Quinn

Verse

Bright skies ahead for the swordsman
Flashing his blade in daylight

Unflinching, unafraid, with death between the eyes
You can't silence the soul of a warrior

Verse 2

Protect the innocent
Standing for the weak
There is a blessing
in every adversary

Pre-Chorus

Reason within the chaos
He must embrace the change

Chorus

Weapon of love
Weapon of war
A sword is the instrument
Of the art of the kill

Slaying his past
In the new age
battousai the manslayer
is their savior

Verse 3

Crimson ambition
Is no longer who I am
A one-sided blade

Dulled by time

Growl breakdown

You know me, from bad reputation
I live up to my name

You fight me, sure of your victory
Your pride is to blame

You're weakened, dulling your spirit
Your blood colors my blade

Casualty, of the revolution
Repent, don't be afraid

Reason in chaos
He must embrace the change

Growl breakdown

You see me, only for a moment
You will never best me

You're wounded, still pressing on Combating my mastery

Your eyes, reveal your fear
Is this all I'm meant to be?

Leader, of the revolution
Killer is my identity

Reason in chaos
He must embrace the change

Chorus

Weapon of love
Weapon of war

A sword is the instrument
Of the art of the kill

Slaying his past
In the new age
is their savior

Slaying his past
Oh the sword
Is their savior

Vengeance of Envy
Music: Robitsch/Walker
Lyrics: Quinn

Verse 1

As the flames circle in ringlets
Around my enemy

And turn the room to ashes
As he smiles and laughs at me

Pre-Chorus (8)

Colonel please stay by my side
You're circling around
Becoming the thing that you despise
You are chained and bound

Chorus (16)

I am the alchemist
In the flames of revenge
suffering a thousand deaths
true form of ugliness

Captive to my own hate
All I see is red

Becoming my enemy
the vengeance of Envy

Verse 2

Invoke the image of a friend
An imposter brought to his end ohhhhhhhh

Pre-Chorus

Colonel please stay by my side
You're circling around
Becoming the thing that you despise
You are chained and bound

True form of ugliness

Captive to my own hate
All I see is red

Chorus

in the flames of revenge

Suffering a thousand deaths
True form of ugliness

Captive to my own hate
All I see is red

Becoming my enemy
the vengeance of Envy

Key change chorus

I am the alchemist
in the flames of revenge

Suffering a thousand deaths
True form of ugliness

A bond stronger than hate
Is a woman and her gaze

Better than my enemy
the vengeance of Envy

A Beautiful End

Verse A

Cold and calculating
Can't leave the ring with you alive

Unassuming like a weed
A weapon against your deadly pride

Verse B

Superior, and ruthless
I've sown the seed of your demise

I don't believe in mercy
Beauty sprung from tortured cries

Bomber, foe in black
No hesitation, count of ten

Silver demon
What will bring me to my end?

Pre-Chorus

Division and unity
We need the light
Within the darkness
To survive

Chorus (half)

As one
At our core
Duality's power

Leaving in our wake
A beautiful end

Verse A

My heart aches for my mother
I have one chance to take

I am human, I am fragile Battle won, but my life claimed

Verse B

Crimson, a shattered rose
Contrast with a flash of green

Closing the gap between worlds
Two in harmony

Demon and human
I am awakened, to my feet

Bond unbroken
Together eternally

Pre-Chorus

Division and unity
We need the light
Within the darkness
To survive

Chorus (whole)

As one
At our core
Duality's power

Leaving in our wake
A beautiful end

At our core

Duality's power

Leaving in our wake
A beautiful end

Verse C (instrumental)

Solo

Bridge (both)

Darkness we will overcome
Darkness we have become

Humanity is our mother
Humanity is our hatred

Nature is our true constant
Nature is where we are free

To win we must be one
To win we all must unify

Chorus 2

As one
Duality's power

A beautiful end

As one
we will survive

Harmonized Solo

The Betrayer: Music: Robitsch
Lyrics: Walker/Quinn

Verse 1

As hours pass with days gone by

I stand there waiting

At the gates of his cell

With cold tears in my eyes

His crimes too great

For my people, I raise hell

(a life in chains) A life in chains

Ooo Ooo Ooo

(I did not make this choice)

Pre-Chorus

Through the fire and the rain

Through sleet and snow

Oh, oh, oh,

Chorus

Across deserts wide and barren plains

No path I fear to tread

Nowhere is safe, my singing blades

Hunger for your soul

ohhh ohhh ohhh

Verse 2

Duty bound, for honor's sake

This mantle is mine alone

This I can't ignore

Sin and evil in his wake

Then all at once, the damage done

My comrades bled upon the floor her wicked lies

released the demon's blight

Pre-Chorus

Through fire and the rain

Through sleet and snow

Chorus

Across deserts wide and barren plains

No path I fear to tread

Nowhere is safe, my singing blades

Hunger for your soul

Ohh ohh ohh

Bridge

My brother's laugh upon the wind

His embrace as he draws me near in his name I'll carry on

The Betrayer shall know fear

(Instrumental Break)

Chorus (and another fucking key change in a graveshadow song)

Across deserts wide and barren plains

No path I fear to tread

Nowhere is safe, my singing blades

Hunger for your soul

I'll hunt you down,

and with you bound

I'll capture your soul

Shadow Battles

As it's foretold

Oh,
Burning Resentment
In the shadows

Chorus

Under red skies
The war will be won
We will overcome

It was never you and I
Under red skies
Scholar hunter son
In shadows we are one

A Stake aimed at your heart

You died long ago
Seeking an end all this time

The war will be won
We will overcome

It was never you and I
Under red sky
Scholar hunter son
In shadows we are one

The Two Lived
Music: Robitsch

Verse

I am the wizard
A man with many doors to escape

All my problems
Disappear with skillful deception

A spell bonding
Me to the eternal flame

I am the magician
I am a sleight of hand

Pre-Chorus

A looking glass into our past
Brings her closer to truth

Verse

I am the fire
Confined within this hearth

Bound to my other
His point of weakness

Castle on two legs
Existence in the shade

I am captured
I desperately want to be free

Pre-Chorus

A looking glass into our past
Brings her closer to truth

Chorus

We are pendragon and demon
Brings the curse, we are weakened

Silver to black, the color fades

The two lived, the great escape

Bridge

Warring nations
Time to take flight

Magic salvation
Intent to do what's right

Burning embers
On the horizon

In all its splendor
bright like the sun

The sky ablaze
Sets an orange hue

I know my purpose
I know what I must do

One man living
Without his heart

The two within Now they must part

Chorus

We are pendragon and demon
Brings the curse, we are weakened

Silver to black, the color fades
The two lived, the great escape
