

Aquila - The Great Fire Ep (Lyrics)

1) The Great Fire

This is my legacy
This is a new beginning
They shall remember my name
I shall reign
I shall reign

Reduced to ashes
My vision is set
Rewrite our history
The senate has betrayed me
streets are covered in red
Black smoke, total madness
My supremacy reigns

The gods are calling my name
Ignite the match of shame

My vision to rebuild the city in my image
I must demolish the past

The gods are calling my name
Ignite the match of shame

Fueled by high winds
The fire in my eyes
2/3 of Rome gone
Temples are engulfed
Citizens become homeless
Crying for justice
Their lives reduced to ashes

Burn!
The fire in my eyes
Burn!
Those in my way
Burn!
Rome shall remain
Destroy and recreate

Look in my eyes
Visions and fire

Rome shall remain
My throne
My supremacy
My legacy

2) Emperor's Curse

I am Nero
Obey my command
Slaughter the Christians and behead them all

I am Nero
Obey my command
Send them to the arena and feed them to the lions

Feed them to the lions

I shall destroy his sheep
The Sheppard shall never rise again

Kneel before your god
Honour me
Or you shall be executed

Crucify them all
in front of the masses
Show the people who they are Fragile and pathetic

Show honour to your god

Behead them all

The throne is mine
So many secrets
So many lies
They shall all die with me

No one can know
No one can find out
With this dagger
my blood is on my hands

I am Nero

I have failed my god
Greed and power corrupted my mind

So many secrets
So many lies
They all shall die with me
My blood is on my hands

3) A City Risen

They called me the antichrist
Revelation was written about me
I can not sleep at night
My demons haunt my mind
I have seen it all in my dreams

It all begins with me
And beyond my last dying breathe

I see a city made out of stone
Visions of solid structures
That fires can not destroy
I've seen it all in my dreams

Whispering voices they cloud my mind
The visions and horror keep me awake

When the sheep turn on their master
A new king shall arise
My own mother I could not even trust

It all begins with me

I see a city made out of stone

When the sheep turn on their master
A new king shall arise

4) The Plague of Galen

I am the plague
Spreading fear throughout the land
I am a prisoner of death
Brought down from generations before me

Silent and deadly

I am the plague
Isolation is your salvation
I am an unseen beast
Tearing away from your insides
You won't know, you won't see it coming

The senate crumbles
Fear and confusion reigns

Pestilence is less deadly than the behavior of mankind

Devastation
All is not well
All is dead inside
We kill the weak and suffer - strong

Together we strive
Together we die

I am the plague
