

Sex, Lies, and DNA

Neighborhoodly quiet polite he keeps to himself

But you sense something is off about him

Yet you never really suspect anything

Until you catch the smell of rotting flesh

Alcoholic

Sexually conflicted

With abandonment issues

Intoxicated on power and control to satisfy the dark lust in his mind

Sex Lies DNA

Sex Lies DNA

A complete serial psychopath who has to kill to get high

Sex Lies DNA

Sex Lies DNA

On your back bound and gagged regretting your last life decision

The killer gloats and has their way

Ejaculating on your terrified face

Intoxicated on the ritual of sex killing and dismemberment

Exacting the victims demise

Calculating

Precise

Drunk and morally detached

A surgeon of the darkest art

Taking innocent lives
Unknowingly the prey enters his realm
To find themselves drugged and under the blade

Carved up to perfection
With the viscera he masturbates

Once a victim briefly escaped his grasp Just to be returned to the killer by incompetent law enforcement

Cunning Lying Persuasive
They failed to see the blood from the lobotomy

Misguided youth becomes enslaved prey
Hole in the head his brain filled with acid

Unresponsive unable to verbalize

Please don't let him kill me

Sex, Lies, and DNA

Sex, Lies, and DNA

A crime of passion and a passion for crime

Sex, Lies, and DNA

Sex, Lies, and DNA

It saddens me

To see the monsters we are capable of being

To kill each other for the most selfish of reasons

Entitled deranged

It could be a serial murderer
Or the attorney with a pill addiction who is failing in life
We never hear the screams of the drowning children
When their father feels he can no longer afford them
Poisoning your family for money
Not conflicted by taking a life
Killing for sex killing for lies killing for DNA
