

Night Hag

Lyrics by Joey Sia
Music by Christian Sia

I'm petrified but my minds awake
I can't speak, it's getting harder to breathe
My heart keeps pounding right through my chest
I see it coming, it's coming for me, coming for me, no!

Black apparitions reaching out for me
Climbing on my bed right on top of me
Cold dead hands wrapped around my neck
Filling my lungs with the air of death

The stench of miasma lingers in the air
The old hag silent as she stares
Cold dead hands gripping tighter around my neck
Death's embrace is coming for me

Coming for me, coming for me
Coming for me, no!

Running her fingers gently through my hair
Gazing in the void of her succubus stare
Cold dead face pressing up against mine
Whispering everything's gonna be fine

Esoteric whispers turning into screams
Hallucination or reality?
Cold dead lips pressing up against mine
The kiss of death she's coming for me

Coming for me, coming for me
Coming for me, no!

Black apparitions reaching out for me
Climbing on my bed right on top of me
Cold dead hands wrapped around my neck
Filling my lungs with the air of death

The stench of miasma lingers in the air
The old hag silent as she stares
Cold dead hands gripping tighter around my neck
Death's embrace is coming for me

Coming for me
It's coming for me
