

TRISKELION

DOWNFALL

1. Hunger

Hunger for blood
Lusting for war
Defiling the planet
Searching for more
Unleashing the plague
Spreading your lies
The serpent he waits
Blood from the skies

It's the time for the fearless to rise
A hunger for change in their eyes
Weaponize fear to anaesthetize
Forever failing unless you try

Undermine authority
Reject their supremacy
Decimate reality
Immobilize the enemy
Rejecting conformity
From the fire emblazed
Traditions must evolve
Screaming but so unfazed

Destitute
Resolute
Hunger...
For Change

2. Find A Way

Time is wasting no longer waiting
What is wrong their brains
Always searching for more
The outsider sails the lunar sea
In the eyes there is wisdom
In hearts lies darkness
Into the unknown the lights forever shine
Standing still is standing for nothing

In a fever, in a trance
Pushing forwards, final chance

Don't know where I'm goin'
But I know I'm on my way
Been travelling on this path
I know I'll find my way

In a rage, full steam ahead
Feel the power, seeing red

Self isolation, the mental frustration
Screaming thoughts into the void
Blaming others for continual failure
A victim of your own delusion
Tear it all down, the saddest clown
A deep down rumbling madness
Consumed with vanity, divisive insanity
The wedge now burrows so deep

3. Odyssey (Blessed By Steel)

When I was young I was hungry like the wolf -
Born with a rebel yell
Heard the devil shout all screaming for vengeance - on the highway to hell

Runnin' round and round like creatures of the night
Strangers in a strange land, jump into the fire

We sailed from devils island - where blood forever rained
Disposable heroes, labelled criminally insane

Forged in the fire
Arise from the flame
A never ending quest
The odyssey is blessed

Blessed by.... Blessed by steel

In a downtime came a full moon madness, it took hold
With a lack of comprehension the metal age was unchained

In eternal glory we are forever free
Kings will be kings, withstand the fall of time

In enchanted lands the serpents of the light
Raise their hammers to the sky ready to fight

4. Wilful Ignorance

A waking nightmare
Frozen figures with blank stares
Arise and beware
Living their lives in fear

Rat a tat tattin'
A machine gun blasting
Confrontation everlasting
Once was aberration
Became the gestation
For the final gasp
Of the dead flame
It drives me insane

Illusionary path
A maddening bloodbath
No escape from this pit
That reeks of bullshit
Your wilful ignorance
Has you caught in a trance
From your hateful ways
Never ceases to amaze

"United in their hate. Abiding in the midst of ignorance, thinking themselves wise and learned, fools go aimlessly hither and thither, like blind led by the blind."

5. A Time of War

Silent and stealthy
Lies of the wealthy
Multiple layers
Humanity's betrayers

Curse you and damn you
Hypocrite we hate you

A time of war
What's it all for
Who lights the way
Drives hate away
Push back the lies
Open your eyes
The time is now
I do avow

Screaming indignancy
Verbal malignancy
Rotten brains
Driven insane

Turn back time
To primordial slime
Like maggots they feast
Society they've fleeced
Never-ending insanity
Feeding their vanity

6. Balance of Terror

Distant outpost, signals lost
In pursuit, at any cost
Deceive and outrun, attack, evade
Valour displayed, alike yet alien
Two of a kind, that will fail again
A tenuous peace, hostilities cease
A treaty made with the beast

With the beast
There is no peace
With the beast
Piece by piece

Balance of terror
Balance of power
Mutually assured
Destruction

A shadowy game
Running silent
Evading reflections
It's life or death
Two cultures collide
But will I live to see
The stars of my home

7. Apex Predator

Apex predator on the hunt
Faster than a shark
Humanity must confront
It's rotten to the core
A charging ton of hatred
Territorially aggressive
Is nothing sacred?
Ecosystem collapses

Evolving in the dark. It's been watching for an age
Flickers of intelligence spark. Unleashed from its cage

Viciously stalking
Seeking revenge
No longer shocking
Ripping flesh from bone
Camouflaged and deadly
Charging forwards
Weeding out the weak
Teeth sink in deep

Like maggots you crawl
Razor claws dagger teeth
The masses applause
What is hidden beneath
Oblivious to disasters
Nature takes revenge
Subjugated masters

8. Indifference

Worse than hate is your indifference to their fate
A living grave to those murdered to those enslaved
Blind eyes wilfully turn, ignorant and unlearned
No regard for the plight of the defenceless billions
Selfish pleasure gratification leads to damnation
Traditions of death, to you I must confess
There can be no peace amidst this ongoing cruelty
With heads in sand a blurred visual acuity

Endless excuses with no compromise
A death industry riddled with lies
Not for survival just for the thrill
Rounding them up to be slaughtered and killed
Barely evolved from the slime you once swam
Your kingdoms to dust your legacy is damned
Your legacy is damned....

Imprisoned in shackles feasting like jackals
Chewing on brains slack-jawed insane
A grotesque pastime cut down in their prime Palate pleasure mindless weak and spineless
Impulsive barbaric practices normalized
Abominations obscured mankind not matured
Blood sports inhumane entrenched in games
Death industries war hear my deafening roar

Your legacy is damned....
