

If I could undo what I did
And unsay what I said
Would you let me make your bed again
And lie in it with me It's been so long since you took away the pain
Won't you lie in it with me

Every time that we were together
I could smell the scent of forever
And god help me I'm begging if you're not waiting in heaven
Just send me to hell then

It used to be noise, but all I heard was you No matter how hard it got, you would always pull me through That light has faded, that time is wasted
I don't think anything can replace it
And now I'm here, indefinite

Listening to the silence around me
And I swear that I heard you breathe in it
And all I hope is that you're feeling the same way
And all I hope is that you're feeling the
same way

Every time that we were together
I could smell the scent of forever
But there's a stench in the air now, my vision is clear how Am I supposed to see the clouds oh I wish that I could turn the hands so I could turn back time
I've made my bed and I've died in it
I just hope that I can be with you again
And say that we are definite

The feeling's taking over
Though we're a thousand miles apart
I feel the air grow colder
I feel the pull grow stronger

And as the years fly by
Do we just wait to die?

I need to take a moment
Before my cup flows over now

Don't focus on what's right
It's over
let it blur
Don't be scared of the light
It's over
It's over
Don't be scared of the light

And as the weeks fly by

The static amplified
I seem to feel a trace of energy telling me I'll be okay

that's all it takes

And now we're left with an emptiness The incantation's silent, but we feel the curse hurt

The knife cut painlessly
But we feel the wound burn

The knife cut painlessly
But we feel the wound burn

Don't be scared of the light
It's over
It's over
I seem to feel a trace of energy
I know

You're in a better place now
Hope u look down

I'm in my seat and my eyes are closed
Thinking about the world below
So much unknown where I'm 'bout to go
When suddenly the sky explodes

My face is buried between my knees
I can only feel what's happening

All the tension fades
And so do I
Nothing feels the same
As we pass by
As we pass by

As the pressure drops and part of the engine stops
I think I'm gonna die here
And now I'm buried
Beneath your feet

I hope the idea is comforting

We're driven by action
To spark a reaction
Wait for the death of us all
As they queue up in a line
To witness the fall

All the tension fades
Up in the clouds
Nothing feels the same
As we crash down
From ten thousand feet up
To six feet in the ground

There's a cloud floating over
It's not so far from where you sleep
It'll haunt your thoughts, planting ideas
Infecting your dreams

There's a mist hanging over the lands
where you eat
In your stomach it's feeding their lies and deceit
Will you break the mold, cease control
They're not the master over every bit of air
we breathe

Let's hide this endless trail of doubt
Like whipping footsteps from the snow
It wanders aimlessly, it may be there for you
but it is not for me
It's time, the story is over
Don't get caught in the undertow

you

But it is not for me

And as it eats away, your will decays

There is no fucking time

You have no place here

You have no place

But there are new convolutions

New turns on the road we walk

To fight this illusion

And as we open our mouths to say

Their aching eyes will roll away

There's a mist hanging over the lands

where you eat

deceit

Will you break the mold, cease control

They're not the master over every bit of air

we breathe

Let's hide this endless trail of doubt
Like whipping footsteps from the snow
you

but it is not for me

It's time, the story is over

Don't get caught in the undertow

you

But it is not for me

There is a creature in my mind
It keeps on digging a deeper hole Carving a tunnel somewhere inside
Pulling strings just to gain control
I know that we're diverging
It's not too late
Pieces rising to the surface
They fit the puzzle that builds my purpose

It's in my mind and it's always hungry
But I won't let this parasite define me

When I look up and I feel the clarity
I let it pick me up I let it carry me
Never thought that I could be so colourblind
I'm in control of my own mind

I know that we're diverging
It's not too late
Something rises to the surface

Among the pieces that build my purpose

It all comes down

Beams of lightning

Strike the places that hurt the most

I've felt this before

This is a known sensation, cold to the core

And as the gods look down upon my soul

Do they just build me up to watch me fall

It's in my mind and it's always hungry

But I won't let this parasite define me

When I look up and I feel the clarity

I let it pick me up I let it carry me

Never thought that I could be so

I'm in control of my own mind

When I look up and I feel the clarity

I let it pick me up I let it carry me
Never thought that I could be so
I'm in control of my own mind

Have you ever been out
Of things to break your head over
The feeling fills you with doubt
And though I'd rather be sober
Watch me drown

Break my bones in two
Lay my skin to waste
Cut my tongue right through
I won't miss the taste

And as my body falls apart
I let my mind become my heart
Join me in this place
where you don't need your face

Have you ever been in A state of bottomless sorrow
Wanna leave your skin don't have a goal or destination

I'm feeling like a train stuck at its station Should we swim forever or would you rather
watch me drown

Break my bones in two
Lay my skin to waste
Cut my tongue right through
I won't miss the taste

And as my body falls apart
I let my mind become my heart
Join me in this place
where you don't need your face

In the light of forever, the blind look free
But the inside of their heads is all they can see.

When all you asked for is truth
And they won't listen to you

You feel yourself break in two

Wanna cut their tongue right through

When will the questions become an obsession?

When will you drink to health?

When will you save yourself?

Indulging into chemical blisses

A drug that will make you feel

Something more than real

It's in your stomach screaming for more

It's got you running and you stumble upon closed doors

no keys, no compass

no need, for justice

And so I settle for sadness

As people fight battles for better times

It never dies, and It'll never find rest

Just like you, would you settle for less?

And when the question becomes an
obsession

Will you erase yourself?

They're asking me to change
but I don't feel that I could be the same
Can we make whole
And take control again
Or does it end in flame

Indulging into chemical blisses
A drug that will make you feel
Something more than real

You let the question become an obsession
When will you save yourself

They're asking me to change
but I don't feel that I could be the same
Can we make whole
And take control again
Or does it end in flame

Breathe

As if it's the last breath that you'll need
As if it's the last time that you'll breathe

My throat's as dry as the air I breathe
I want to move but I'm stuck underneath
The weight of this boulder that fell on my shoulder

As I keep thinking over and over

A single sip, even just a drop
To make the hallucinations stop
My brain tells my eyes to see
A drop of rain to kill the pain in me
A drop of rain to kill the pain

And should these waters never come
And the sand around me is what I become
No sense of time, it feels like forever
One hundred and twenty seven

My arm just feels like a curse now
I'll have to take it off somehow
Can I stand watching the blood flow

At this point I'd do anything
Just to get home

And should these waters never come
And the sand around me is what I become
No sense of time, it feels like forever

These one hundred and twenty seven hours
Have broken me apart

And should these waters never come
And the sand around me is what I become
No sense of time, it feels like forever
One hundred and twenty seven

These one hundred and twenty seven hours
Have broken me in two

I carry on, but i'm losing sense of direction I'm on my knees in my search for acceptance

As the days go by and I find that what I left behind

Was a piece of my mind and I know
That I can't keep this disguise up

You may have doubts but I know that we'll rise up

Kill the visions that we keep seeing And just pretend that we're fine for the time being

They won't stop until there's nothing left for them to take

Don't let them turn us into enemies

Am I just an error in your design
An imperfection between the lines

Cracks in the floor

Sometimes I'm trapped between four walls without a door

Can't raise the bar, can't feel my heart

Falling apart, falling apart

To each his own, we all walk a different road

But we'll pretend that we're fine for the time being

And just pretend that we're fine

I'm just an error in your design

An imperfection between the lines

You said your stomach will hold the key

And there is nothing in it for me

You said your stomach will hold the key

And there is nothing in it for me
