1. Ego Trip

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

Chest is tight
Hard to breath
Tick like a bomb, don't wanna explode
You got me in a choke hold

Stuck in my head
Gotta find my centre
No rhyme or reason, body's saying fuck me
I just want to be free

Trying not to take offence
Your brain is stunted
You're making things tense
Your identity is fronted

EGO TRIP! They think they're so slick
I think I'm gonna be sick
GET A GRIP! Don't respect my elder
Why would I respect the offender?

POWER TRIP! You think you know it all
You don't think I recall
GONNA FLIP! Cuz you say I'm crazy
You say my memory is hazy

You will reap what you have sown!

Keep on walking
This has gotta stop
What's the point of talking
If you don't wanna know the truth

I'm fine with being wrong
Just wanna do the research
Ignorance won't make you strong
And it's not gunna give you self worth

EGO TRIP! They think they're so slick
I think I'm gonna be sick
GET A GRIP! Don't respect my elder
Why would I respect the offender?

POWER TRIP! You think you know it all
You don't think I recall
GONNA FLIP! Cuz you say I'm crazy
You say my memory is hazy

You will reap what you have sown!

2. Automatic Thrash Machine

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

I'm out of cash
But I wanna thrash
I need my fix
I need my 666

Don't wanna work
Just wanna go berserk
Oh shit, a riff so cunning
We've got some thrash incoming

We need this rage to start
So we can rip this pit apart
We gotta keep it real
To the thrash gods we will kneel

It's gunna be a keggar
Get it in you like a dagger
Flippy cup and beer pong
What could even go wrong?

AUTOMATIC! Coming at me like a bolt
Pour this beer down my throat
THRASH MACHINE! Not gunna keep it clean
Gunna drink until I'm green!

AUTOMATIC! Like a psychedelic trip
We're gunna sink this ship
THRASH MACHINE! It's giving us the spins
This is where it begins

Let's go!

Brought the whisky and gin
Circle pit for the win
I'm gunna do a keg stand
Oh yeah, I'm ruler of Thrashland

Don't want this night to end
I'm gunna be on the mend
Hanging out on the rooftop
Keep it rolling, please don't stop

AUTOMATIC! Coming at me like a bolt
Pour this beer down my throat
Gunna drink until I'm green!

AUTOMATIC! Like a psychedelic trip
We're gunna sink this ship
THRASH MACHINE! It's giving us the spins

3. Prophet of Deceit

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

Burn what remains
Not gonna fuel your fire
You're harming yourself
Don't you ever tire?

I rise from the ashes
I'm gaining ground
Destroying your worth
Anger has you bound

I left that hellbent town
Coming back to a wasteland
Not gonna drag you down
But I know who I am

The smell of gas in the air
Not even playing fair
Want me to pick a side?
There won't be any compromise!

You'll never survive
What you can't keep alive
Your kinships never last
Move on, you better do it fast

Everything's not what it seems
It's the fire you set
While I reach my dreams
You'll look back in regret

I'll take those red flags
And use them as a sign
I don't wanna hear you brag
Cuz I know you crossed a line

I left that hellbent town
Not gonna drag you down
But I know who I am

The smell of gas in the air
Not even playing fair
Want me to pick a side?
There won't be any compromise!

4. Psychosomatic

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

Aggravated, in distress
I can't stay above water
They send me to the slaughter

When I walked in
They asked me how I've been
I said I could be better
Can you help me unfetter?

Oh I see it's all in my head?
It's my mind that has me misled?
Looking them straight in the eye
Do you think I tell a lie?

PSYCHO! Aches and pains no one can explain
Sending signals from my brain
SOMATIC! Unhinged, paranoid, and wary
Disconnect from the ordinary

PSYCHO! Aches and pains no one can explain
Sending signals from my brain
SOMATIC! Unhinged, paranoid, and wary

PSYCHO! Feeling nothing but drained
They think my illness is feigned
SOMATIC! Unheard, unwanted, and trapped
Energy is completely strapped

5. The Serpent's Cycle

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

Stuck in an endless loop
Jumping through every hoop
Living the same life over
Staying within the border

One day, she coloured outside the lines
No longer trapped within the vines
Something new transpired
This next life has expired

Running from the devil's hour
When the time comes, we will cower
Never ending like time itself
Repeating it all by myself

This is our reality
Eventually we reach fatality
Then we are reborn
To be happy and to mourn

THE SERPENT'S CYCLE!

SHOT! With the blast of a rifle
She will restart the cycle
Babe in her mothers arms
Born again, she feels the calm

DISTRAUGHT! Wake up the same hour
She feels an unknown power
She sees the in between
The unknown and unseen

Here one minute, gone the next
Our lives are just a hex
Glimpses of lives that lived
Only to be revived

Every change causes ripples
Insanity always triples
Creating a new dimension
Too much for comprehension

Running from the devil's hour
When the time comes we will cower

This is our reality
Eventually we reach fatality
Then we are reborn
To be happy and to mourn

THE SERPENT'S CYCLE!

6. Trapped in Time

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley & David Kupisz

Flash to the coming times
You're all alone
You should have seen the signs
Fate has been shown

Back to the before
Searching for clues
To open the door
For the best life to chose

You do it just for your sake
Taking a misstep
You don't know how to prep

Soul is consumed by greed
Don't care about others pains
A hunger you can't feed
Pride runs in your veins

Trapped in time
Over and over
Trying to relive your prime

Trapped in time
Reliving your sorrow
You cannot escape your crime

Time will consume you
There is no perfect life
You're able to renew
But all in all, there's strife

It's a never ending game
There are no winners
It will drive you insane
We are all but sinners

Trapped in time
Over and over

Trapped in time
Reliving your sorrow

7. Spirit Bandit

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

Uncontrollable lust, domination is a must
Doing what they want
I see within, what drives them to sin
You've got no power, no voice

Self deception, a messed up perception
Definition of fake
Not fulfilled, danger just to be thrilled
Destroying all around them

Give them recognition
They need an ignition
To set you alight

Need full control
Send you to a black hole
Sense of self has collapsed

Question sanity, because of their vanity
The gas has been lit
Can't be alone, the lies they've sown
Will keep you up at night

Worth comes from control
Stealing soul after soul
Broken minds for trophies
You only hold the keys

A false narrative, therapy's imperative
Staying in denial
Didn't call them names, no need to play games
They have no power over me

Self importance, nothing but a serpent
Luring you in
Lacking empathy, but there is a chemistry
Making you dependent

Don't have any shame, fantasies of fame
Not doing the work
Always testing, pretend do be jesting
Others are too weak

They are special and you're just a vessel
Incomplete without them
Have a problem, always gotta condemn
It's always just you

Repressing insecurities, hiding your impurities
Outward they have no flaws
No boundaries, with profound unease
They push everyone away

Inflate accomplishments, just for the compliments
You're never satisfied

Starved ego, just like a mosquito
Sucking the life blood out of me

Worth comes from control
You only hold the keys

Once you drain your victims
You always contradict them
Cry innocent but you planned it
Just another spirit bandit

8. Eye for an Eye

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

A flicker of a person
A victim of arson
Sudden movement of a chair
But nothing's there

Tied to the place of death
Where they took their last breath
Case unresolved
Who could have been involved?

Searching for their captor
Wanting the next chapter
Bones lay under concrete
Their case is incomplete

Denied eternal sleep
The price was oh so steep
For an others big mistake
Forgive me for this life I take

RUN! To escape from hell
You will bolt upright
REVENGE! Of the Poltergeist
Searching for the one

STUN! Shadow of a gun
A moment in time
AVENGE! To seek their justice
They must pay for their crime

They sleep in their bed
A noise ringing in their head
Closing their eyes tight
Feeling nothing but fright

Could it be at last?
Was it them I just passed?
Finally, I'll stop their evil deeds
Not going to stop until they bleed

And they bled

9. Binge & Surge

Lyrics: Colin Ryley & Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

Electrifying nights, and the mood's just right
A drunken rage will go down tonight
Gonna rip this place up, like it's what we're born to do
Grab your drink and give it an unscrew

We'll shred and tear apart this neighbourhood
Shots 'til we're blacked out, am I understood?
Maniacs of alcohol, we'll drink until we fall
High voltage currents inebriate us all!

BINGE! We will drink away the night
Slam your beer and grab one more until it's daylight
SURGE! Electric power through your veins
Knocking back bottles until nothing else remains

BINGE & SURGE!

Where's the keg? I need poison for my soul
We're gonna find a party and smash the punch bowl
We'll never rest, we're gunna set the world ablaze
Check your pulse is fully charged, and no it's not a phase

BINGE! We will drink away the night
Slam your beer and grab one more until it's daylight

BINGE & SURGE!

10. Deathbringer

Lyrics: Marlee Ryley

Music: Colin Ryley

The power to create existence
Destroy all resistance
Never harming the innocent
Only those who are pestilent

Consort to destruction
Bring order to dysfunction
Rebirth from desolation
Forming a new generation

Manifested from a third eye
Raining fire from the sky
Awaiting a strong sacrifice
Only human blood with suffice

Moral and immoral
Impartial and immortal
She transcends it all
To hear her children's call

She who is death
Will take away your breath
Slaying you for your crime
Devouring all of time

She who is death
Reaches every depth
Expression of nature
Erasing all who betray her

Once she killed a demon
She lost all reason
Consuming his vital fluid
Becoming less than lucid

Emotions turned capricious
Merciless & vicious
Eradication becomes chaotic
Her desolation is iconic

She who is death
Will take away your breath
Slaying you for your crime
Devouring all of time

She who is death
Reaches every depth
Expression of nature

She who is death!
Bringer of death!
