

:::FATAL ATTRACTION:::

written by: Hunter Raymond / Aidan Desmarais Can you feel it coming for the win the pounding in your soul to give into the sin flying high my fate, with the wind I call my home bring me to the one they say that I must know

Gonna give it to you

Be the one that I can't drink enough take me higher than the fire that's above can't get enough of this addiction all I got for you is fatal attraction

Gonna give it to you stuck forever how could I live without the dream of leaving you fills me full of doubt I lay and wait for now here I call my home the love and misery rots me to the bone

gonna give it to you

Fatal attraction
Be the one that I can't drink enough
take me higher than the fire that's above
can't get enough of this addiction
all I got for you is fatal attraction

:::BAD LOVE:::

Written by: Hunter Raymond / Aidan Desmarais

3 o'clock in the morning and I can feel your malicious intent you always seem to like when I fight right back coming outta the rain with your blacked out eyes bringing home to me the thunder again

Anytime that I'm feeling lonely every time that I'm sick of it all I think back to you my love my only back to our home underground

It was, bad love, A cry and the high of ecstasy bad love, too young too fast for it anyways bad love, holding onto a better day bad love bad love, you took my heart away

Ya you know you better stick to the story cause I gotta run the facts am I cutting loose, are you coming back you chained to my life, you took my pride gave me a heart attack ya well you believe in love when I bleed like that

Anytime that I'm feeling lonely
every time that I'm sick of it all I think back to my broken heart my only back to our home underground ground

It was bad love, a chaos in harmony bad love, too young too fast for it anyways

bad love, holding onto a better day bad love, you took my heart away the innocent cant run and hide from the great bitter unknown the worst drug that I ever had was the one I came to hold the one to warm my bitter heart became the way I fell apart take me back to days gone by, shelter from my broken heart

Bad love
