

SUNLESS FRIDAY

Nearly lost all that was near and dear
Whole new body a relentless fear

Can barely breathe can barely speak
Day became more gloomy and bleak
Eyes to the ceiling a sinking feeling
Internal bleeding, weeping and screaming

A heartbeat away from Heaven
A deathbed confession a bitter regression
A heartbeat away from Heaven
A loved one depression as deep as the ocean

Blurry memories a waking dream
Soothing voices and bloodcurdling scream
A pain worse than death I'm gasping for breath
The angels ahead shouting I'm not dead

A heartbeat away from Heaven
A deathbed confession a bitter regression
A heartbeat away from Heaven
A clouds connection a funeral procession

My new life ain't dark as a moonless night
(I'm not dead, they failed to take me away)
My resilience will be my daylight.

ODE TO THE DEAD

Endless mournful cries
Filled with sorrow
When the laughter dies
Raring to go

The water darkens...
The blue sky opens...

How quiet are the drowned
How quiet are the sick
How quiet are the poisoned
How quiet are the dead

They wake! they wake!
They walk! they walk!
They walk among us!

Staring at the stars
Don't want to reach
In silken angel's arms
Without fear I'll sleep

The water darkens...
The blue sky opens...

How quiet are the drowned
How quiet are the sick
How quiet are the poisoned
How quiet are the dead

They walk among us!

BATTERED SOUL

It's starts today
The only way
The sky turns grey
I drink the wine
I walk the line
I redefine
Reverence to my demise
Comprehend what I despise
Numb to the pain
A tortured brain
Kissed by the rain
A bitter cold
My battered soul
As black as coal
It doesn't matter, in a hundred years from now we're all be dead
It doesn't matter, in a hundred years or more for those I've bled
A loaded gun
There's no more hope
I'm trying to cope
I lie awake
A frozen state
Forsaken faith
Another way to say goodbye
A memory that never dies
Another way to say goodbye
A memory that never dies
I wear the crown
I let you down
There's no way out
You cast the stone
I'm overthrown
I'll die alone
It doesn't matter, in a hundred years from now we're all be dead
It doesn't matter, in a hundred years or more for those I've bled

KINGS OF THE WEST SIDE

Code of the street
A pigheaded pride
Give till you bleed
The future looks bright 2x

A victim of hate
No time to celebrate
Taking back control
On the ones who try to hold
We're cold hearted souls
I pave the streets with gold

Remembering a friend
Stay true till the end
A hunger for fame cuz we're on top of the game
A heartless liar, a burning desire
When two worlds collide...
We're the kings of the West Side

Kings of the West Side!

Strong in mind, Strong in deed
Open fire and watch them bleed (2x)
There's no time to waste
Bring back the good old days
Taking back control
On the ones who try to hold
We're cold-hearted souls
I pave the streets with gold

Remembering a friend
Stay true till the end
A hunger for fame cuz we're on top of the game
A heartless liar, a burning desire
When two worlds collide...
We're the kings of the West Side

The Kings of the West Side!

Taking back control
On the ones who try to hold
We're cold-hearted souls
I pave the streets with gold

UNDER THE SAME SKY

See the world through jaded eyes
Seems only hate and pain arise
Love either grows or set it free
Forever been and always will be

Still the smell of corruption
Leading to social erosion
We can see their evil ways
The poor have fallen on their darkest days

(chorus)
Between the sky and the deep blue sea
Trough the agony and the ecstasy
Soul either grows or it flies
Yet we all live under the same sky

Mournful image of hateful ways
The future ain't a holyday
Forever lost the way we were
Lord open their minds so they can't hurt

Still the smell of corruption
Leading to social erosion
We can see their evil ways
The poor have fallen on their darkest days

(chorus)
Between the sky and the deep blue sea
Trough the agony and the ecstasy
Soul either grows or it flies
Yet we all live under the same sky
There's a place where the sun won't rise
And we all live under the same sky

Still the smell of corruption
Leading to social erosion
We can see their evil ways

BASTARD SON

I've never seen my father's grave
Only remember the pain he gave
Became the man i used to hate
What have I done to deserve this fate?

A face and a son only a mother could love
Cause only her love can hold me above
A human of peace in my madness of life
Haunted by my inner strife

Conflicts, murders, these are the things they call me for...
Burials, torture, these are the things they pay me for...
Victims, widows, these are the things they hate me for...

These are the things that they hate me for...

These are the things... they hate me for... they hate me for
They hate me!!!

The one with the gun makes the rules
Today's hero, tomorrow's fool
The one with the blade darkens your day
Heaven holds a place for those who pray

The one with the shovel works very hard
To make every task a work of art
A picture is worth a thousand words
I beg you don't come into my broken world

Conflicts, murders, these are the things they call me for...
Burials, torture, these are the things they pay me for...
Victims, widows, these are the things they hate me for...

These are the things that they hate me for...

These are the things... they hate me for... they hate me for
They hate me!!!

THE BURDEN

It's like walking alone down an endless corridor it's like swimming in a river without a shore to fight a demon lurking in the shadows
It's like struggling and sinking into the snow

A silhouette that disappears and reappears
Taking over your days taking over your years
When the light returns, the darkness takes over
Feeling and knowing the road will last forever

(Chorus)

It feels like my heart's stuck in my throat
I'll take one more breath with a glimmer of hope
I can see all the pain that's in your eyes
It's hard to scream when you're paralysed
The shards of glass flows through my veins
Cuz letting go will never stop the pain
The flood of memories are like stars in the sky
It's hard to scream when you're paralysed

An ocean of heartache, you're drowning in despair in a blink of an eye you've vanished in the air
At least we're all freed from this shade and burden
Torment and sorrow gives way to a peaceful garden

(Chorus)

Unending pain, here comes the rain
On the decline, over the line
Stuck in the wave, flows to the grave
Far and away, blue turns to grey

Fight to the death, took my last breath
Light up the night, free as a kite
Beautiful sky, gleam in my eye
Knew I could fly, as soon as I died...
