

Cape Breton Home

Lyrics by: JJ Tartaglia

My Cape Breton home, I know, seems so far
Times gone past, alas, memories forever last
The place I once knew, so far, seems to fade
But in my heart, I'll be home again someday

We are the boys and we're having a time tonight
We are the boys and we're going strong
We are the boys and we're having a drink tonight
Come here dear won't keep you too long

We could be relieved
Sent back home and in high regard
It would be believed
We were heroes of the sea

We'd set sail, as soon as morning light
We'd be gone, all on our own
We'd gear up, and show up to the fight

Yes we'll make stories to remember
That they'll tell for good
Yeah it won't hurt, what we don't know
That's the life for me

My Cape Breton home, I know, seems so far
Times gone past, alas, memories forever last
The place I once knew, so far, seems to fade
But in my heart, I'll be back again someday

Oh yeaaaah
Oh send me a sign
Far in the afterglow

We'd set sail, as soon as morning light
We'd be gone, all on our own
We'd gear up, and show up to the fight
Yes we'll make stories to remember
That they'll tell for good
Yeah it won't hurt, what we don't know
That's the life for me
