'REBIRTH' EP – All Lyrics

THE REVOLT

Despised resolution
Invoke our revolution
Designs to bring forward
The words of saints and martyrs

The birth of conflicts and conquest
Vainly named for God
In times of desperate need
In strife we fall to our knees
With breathless words we await
The death of our land

We pray for change
As we annihilate.....

Hinder us no longer
We will persist, march forward
No more silent victims
Revolutionary victors

(March) Burdened sinners
(March, March) On the oppressors
(March, March, March) No survivors
(March)... to the rhythm of the war drums
... Fists to the skies
Strike hard with all of your might Sleeping dreamers, no more
Fight for your paradise

Hinder Us no longer!
We will persist, march forward
No more your silent victims
Revolutionary victors

We pray for change
As we annihilate
Rewrite our fate
Rebirth... of history

RUINS OF TRUTH

Caught in a state of decay
Mind Numbing, terrorizing,
Rotting... The prophet beseeches
Lift your heads
Lift your guns

Lift your pride children of liberty
Lift your eyes
From the dirt
Freedom forbidden by tyranny

Blinded by polarity
Wounding our humanity
Buried in the ashes birthed by ruins of truth
Condemned; alive to be free ...

Apostates of liberty
Swallowed by Apathy
Virulent hedonists
Blinded by lethargy

Blinded by polarity
Condemned; alive to be free ...
Blind by polarity
Losing all our faith
As we fall from grace
As we all fall

Blinded by polarity
Losing all our faith
Humanity's disgrace

DON'T STARTLE THE MURDER

Fade away with the words of your savior
Infest your brain. I'm the victim
Degenerates, killing for your religion
The disease is all you see when you look at me

The crows will carve you out
The crows will carve you out
They're coming to feed the greed within
Their hunger will bring upon their doom

They rise, they rise
With weapons they claim
They use it to take everything
Everything from us
Death explained
Through secrets and shame
To killed everything in sight
To survive ascension
Is it right?... Give me a fucking break

The crows will carve you out

The crows will carve you out
They're coming to feed the greed within
And bring their death, the end begins

The crows will carve you out
The crows will carve you out

THE LONGEST NIGHT

The throne of lies
Decrees the order
Sacrificed in vain
You'll never see your children laughing
You'll never see your home
The defenders sent to suffer
Pawns made of stone

As the world starts crumbling
Before my eyes
I wipe away fear with defiance
Fight for one, I'll fight for all
Innocent lives
I'll stand my ground on this longest night

Blood will shed
Dead-eyed men
Stare into hell
Their savior has faltered
Their sins overwhelm
Actions unrepentant
Souls to the void
Revolutionary army marching
Freedom's their call

As the world starts crumbling
Fight for one, fight for all
Innocent lives
I'll stand my ground on this longest night

Freedom calling
Blood is boiling
Forward!
March!

I see with my own eyes
The pain that I caused
Divined from beyond
Shed Tears of remorse

I died for another's war

Curse those who sleep at night
These nightmares I've survived
Stared into dead men's eyes
As they beg for mercy

Folly of mankind's sin
I relinquished my own will
To serve the cursed flag
That binds my heart no more!

As the world starts crumbling
Fight for one, I'll fight for all
Innocent lives
I'll stand my ground on this longest night
