

Lyrics: Reduced to Ash by F. Vaturina, F. Tosi, M. Capshaw

Music: F. Tosi, F. Vaturina, M. Capshaw

Verse 1:

Far from the groves of Akadeen

Creature like torment, Forever Dead

Resurrection, Possession, Incantation

The forest of no return...

Chorus:

Driven Insane

Tormented by Demon Wind

Cellar

Dweller

Raped by the wood.

We are the things that were, and shall be again

We want what is yours

Dead by Dawn

Verse 2:

Dismember all your friends

Cabin drenched in blood

You can scream, you can shout

But still you can't get out!

Chorus:

Driven Insane

Tormented by Demon Wind

Cellar

Dweller

Raped by the wood.

We are the things that were, and shall be again

We want what is yours

Dead by Dawn

Between Bridges:

Let's Carve ourselves a Witch!

Deaf Gods Lyrics: F. Vaturina, F. Tosi, M. Capshaw

Born hopeful, indoctrined, till faith crashed.

Drowned into, grey voices, psychotic cracks.

Relentless decay, erodes beliefs away

Relentless decay, erodes beliefs away

Mind spinning, mind thinning, I know they saw

Sought out your holy help, the sent the dogs

Prostrated, Venerated, got Slapped in the Face

Empowered, soul soured, with death I will replace

Drowned into, grey voices, psychotic spells

Sanctimony, Sanctimony, shoot out all the church bells

Sanctimony, Sanctimony, shoot out all the church bells

Skull Vessel Lyrics: M. Capshaw

Music: M. Capshaw

Verse 1:

Blood on the bricks of deceptions inner chamber.

Hallowed hall stuck in blue black

Witnesses snake tounge

Ritual sex clan, priestess arches her back

Caveria cut, blood collected, red lines follow fontanelles

Full participation, skull vessel full, hold on with both hands.

Hold on with both hands

Fears imageries are real, Waiter come and serves

Hell on the trail on satanic red burst

Synergies are crossed, inner conscience

Lost in the truth, I'm sure I want this

Lost is my conscience

Drawn and Quartered Lyrics by M. Capshaw, F. Tosi

Music: F. Tosi

Verse 1:

Convicted on suspicion, hatred is enough.

Horse trained science the false god justice in the dirt

Laughing as the ligatures lock, ankles and the wrists

Ferver in the children, headsman cracks the horses whips

Pre-Chorus:

Now we see your fear, now we see the ropes go tight,

now we see your fear, now we know we're safe.

Now we see your fear, now we see the ropes go tight,

now we see your fear, now we know we're safe.

Chorus:

We are viscous bone and skin, head and torso twitching

Arms and legs in four directions, decency gone missing.

Verse 2:

Thirty seconds, the purest pain, consciousness fades out.

Dogs rush in to eat remains, fighting over bowels

Witnesses exit the bloody scene, vomit out their doubts

Trust us we have purged correctly, out at the streets they shout

Pre-Chorus:

Now we see your fear, now we see the ropes go tight,
now we see your fear, now we know we're safe.

Now we see your fear, now we see the ropes go tight,
now we see your fear, now we know we're safe.

Chorus:

We are viscous bone and skin, head and torso twitching
Arms and legs in four directions, decency gone missing.

Hanged, Drawn and Quartered

Hanged, Drawn and Quartered

Hanged, Drawn and Quartered

Hanged, Drawn and Quartered

War March Lyrics: M. Capshaw

Music: F. Tosi

Verse 1:

Mankind, legion of death, power hate and fear
Consequence, hell is empty, all the devils are here
Everyone on the ground, hands behind your head
You chose execution style to open the door of the dead
Follow us, well take you behind the live pits of decay
Where decadence is the rule, and flesh is the foreplay
I tooth the mark, for us that chose this place
Stand for your branding, and pass through the gates

Chorus:

War March, War March, War March
War March, War March, War March

Verse 2:

Weaks will be denied, locked in limbos dirt
Feel the betrayal, feel the curse
Leave your damaged soul behind in a black box in chains
Permanent purgatory, anguished and afraid
A state of mental leprosy, eating the mind from within
Time doesn't exist when you commit eternal sin
A state of mental leprosy, eating the mind from within
Time doesn't exist when you commit eternal sin
A state of mental leprosy, eating the mind from within

Chorus:

War March, War March, War March

War March, War March, War March

Bridge:

Move ahead, walk in darkness, sons of blasphemy

Luciphonic hear the voice of Satan's call too me

Move ahead, walk in darkness, sons of blasphemy

Luciphonic hear the voice of Satan's call too me

Bound by blood red marte, phantasms in reverie

Bound by blood red marte, phantasms in reverie

As Above, So Below

Lyrics: F. Vaturina, M. Capshaw, F. Tosi

Music: F. Tosi, F. Vaturina, M. Capshaw

Verse 1:

Read my bones, etched eternal, I forebear the lie.

Read my skin, see the sinews remnants, cracked and dry

Each time it new from the snake a task just to be there

Each time worse, all I see is blood everywhere

Chorus:

Dance of hell fire, I will accept this fate

I walk arising, death herself avoid my gaze

Verse 2:

Through the ages set adrift my mind a constant wanted to wander

Messenger in both domains, a dual first responder

Sangre, Sangre, try not to stare

Sangre, Sangre, blood everywhere

Chorus:

Dance of hell fire, I will accept this fate

I walk arising, death herself avoids my gaze

Upon the gates of Midian, awoken from this nightmare

Let it be known, As Above, So Below

Bridge:

Dance of hell fire, I will accept this fate

I walk arising, death herself avoids my gaze

Upon the gates of Midian, awaken from this nightmare

Let it be known, As Above, So Below

Dance of hell fire, I will accept this fate

I walk arising, death herself avoids my gaze

Upon the gates of Midian, awaken from this nightmare

Let it be known, As Above, So Below
