

Queen Of Mars

She roams the desert leaving imprints in the sand
A gypsy spirit, wandering this ancient land
Her footprints tell the story of a vagrant grace
That time cannot erase

Straying, beyond the desert
Beyond the desert's edge
An eternal drifter

The shifting dunes, they whisper secrets in her ear,
Amidst the barren landscape, memories revere
Her voice, a melody, that echoes in the breeze
Will bring you to your knees

Straying beyond the desert's edge
An eternal drifter

From sunsets to sunrises
Under a boundless sky
The Queen of Mars arises
Breaking through the binds of time

In the vast expanse, she finds her sanctuary
Within a cosmic trance, a celestial mercenary

An eternal drifter

Straying, beyond the desert
Beyond the desert's edge

Straying

From sunsets to sunrises
Under a boundless sky
The Queen of Mars arises
Breaking through the binds of time

A glare that hypnotizes
When darkness draws demise
The Queen of Mars arises
With a stare that terrifies

Beyond the desert's edge
